

Give Biblical Solutions with Consideration of Man's Position, His Work & His Role

Holidays- Where will you celebrate? How will things be done? What will be the focus? Who will be in charge? In what way will you protect your household?

Kids & college- Which one? How will you decide? Who's paying? How supportive should you be? What is the main purpose for going?

Sports & social activities- What will be your family's course of action? How will these decisions be made? What do you believe is it you must save your family from? How will you do this?

Vacations & trips- Going on vacation, taking a trip. Where? For what reason? How long?

Church Involvement- How important is church? How do you measure its importance? Is decorum and Sunday attire at all important? Is regular attendance a factor? Should each member of the family be serving in some way?

Careers & moving- What will be the biggest factor in making your decision?

Friends & fellowship- Do you have any friends that you visit and fellowship with on a fairly regular basis that are not Christians? What is your reason?

Your parents don't like your spouse and are very vocal about it. What will you do?

Care & convalescence- There is an elderly relative in need that no one seems to claim responsibility for. What will your family do?

Adult children- What should be your role in their lives? Are you still parenting? Why? Are you still supporting your adult children? Why? Are your adult children parenting you or your wife? Why? Do you allow your adult children to be disrespectful in any way? Why?

Relatives- How involved do you believe you should be with relatives that reject Jesus as Lord? Do you feel your obligation should be to maintain family unity or to maintain your loyalty to Christ?

Politics- become the hot topic at the table. Before long the conversation takes a critical turn. What will you do?

Who would you say initiates and directs the conversations in your household?
