

1 Timothy
(Conduct in God's House)

POINT: "What is the book about?"

It is about appropriate conduct for the household of God, which is the Church.

PURPOSE: "Why was the book written?"

To keep pastors on the right track as they shepherd & manage the Church.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION: "How does this affect my life personally?"

1. According to 1 Timothy 1.5, how will I know if I'm in a good church?
2. If the Church I attend slanders authority or disregards God's Divine order, is it being managed well.... Is it acceptable in God's sight? 1 Timothy 2.1-3, 8-12
3. What kind of men should be leading my church? 1 Timothy 3.1-7
4. What should be the first responsibility of the pastor? 1 Timothy 4.13-16
5. How is the pastor to instruct the wealthy? 1 Timothy 6.17-19
